LOCATION

The essence of Queretaro lies in its juxtaposition of the historic and modern. Its colonial architecture and centuries-old monuments tell the tale of Spanish history and influence in the region, while its modern shopping centers, boutiques, bars and restaurants are hallmarks of a well-developed metropolitan city.

In Queretaro's historic downtown area, designated as a UNESCO World Heritage Site in 1996, visitors can stroll through the streets, see colonial mansions, visit cultural exhibits, admire the city's aqueduct, and sample a variety of coffees and bars with live music.

PLACES OF INTEREST

The essence of Queretaro is found in its contrasts of ancient monuments and a contemporary city that provides shopping malls, boutiques, bars and restaurants of top quality where you can enjoy yourself.

Santiago de Queretaro is a World Heritage Site, a city of architecture and exceptional nuances; to walk its streets is a delight and will take you to the city center, where there are a variety of quaint coffee shops and bars with live music. Its neighboring towns, such as San Juan del Río, Bernal and Tequisquiapan are options for further exploration of the region.

ROOMS

Our minimalist-style guest rooms feature contemporary decorations and design perfect for guests seeking a place to rest and relax with a certain degree of sophistication. The details and amenities included in our rooms are intended to guarantee a pleasant, memorable stay for our guests and to offer them the freedom to feel at home.

LOCATION

At Km 5.5 of the Amealco highway, very close to San Juan del Río, Querétaro, you will find a place where time stands still.

Legend has it that the ranch was a gift from Hernán Cortés to La Malinche for having been his interpreter and adviser.

PLACES OF INTEREST

Queretaro is a province of subtle interplay between its Baroque architecture and contemporary way of life.

Bernal is a picturesque town watched over by the imposing surrounding cliffs, which intertwines mysticism and the splendor of our past.

Tequisquiapan is the second most important city of the state due to its attractive tourist sites and the warmth of its people.
