La Colección Resorts Announces Summer Reopenings and Expansion of All-Inclusive Offering

The collection prepares for upcoming gradual openings of resorts throughout Mexico, as well as more all-inclusive options with the transition of luxurious family-friendly resort Grand Fiesta Americana Coral Beach – All Inclusive starting June 11.

Mexico City, Mexico (June 11, 2020) – After a brief halt of operations due to the global pandemic, La Colección Resorts is ready to open its doors to travelers across Mexico’s most enchanting destinations. Starting June 11, resorts under the brands of Live Aqua, Fiesta Americana, Grand Fiesta Americana and The Explorean will begin a gradual reopening following a timeline established by local authorities. Reopenings paired with the recently announced Travel with Confidence program that showcases the elevated safety and sanitization protocols implemented across all 15 properties keeps the peace of mind of travelers as a top priority as they begin to venture out for much needed relaxation.

“Though recent circumstances may have forced physical distance between us, we remain as united as ever,” said Jose Carlos Azcarraga, CEO of Posadas. “We have stayed in touch throughout the process as we took all the necessary measures to reopen. Now, thanks to our passion for service, we are ready to offer not just guaranteed safety but also the same amazing experiences that we always have and always will offer—so you never have to stop traveling or staying with us,” he added.

Reopening of hotels under La Colección Resorts are scheduled as follows and are subject to changes according to local regulations in each destination:

- June 11
