Meet the Team

Meet Sarah Agramonte

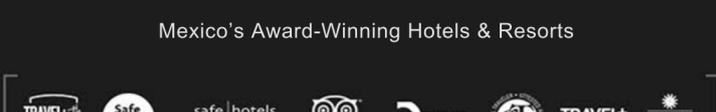

With more than 15 years of experience in the tourism industry, Sarah Agramonte is a dedicated hospitality veteran whose focus will be the successful expansion of Posadas in the Dominican Republic with Live Aqua Beach Resort Punta Cana, the first for the brand outside of Mexico. In her position as Director of Sales, she will lead a robust sales team of experts for the new hotel, while also transmitting the core values of the reputable company.

Agramonte began her career in Spain in 2008 as Group and Sales Coordinator for Hotel Silken Puerta América in Madrid where she focused on groups and conventions. In 2011, she returned to her homeland – the Dominican Republic – with the opportunity to work with Melia Hotels International where she rose through different leadership positions over her 10-year tenure. Throughout her years of experience, Agramonte has had the opportunity to garner understanding for every facet of the business that leads to successful marketing and sales for any property.

Agramonte graduated with high honors from the Universidad Iberoamericana de Santo Domingo (UNIBE) and obtained her Master in Hotel Management from the Universidad de Alcalá de Henares in Madrid, Spain in 2008.
